Spring Festival/Chinese New Year

The first day of the first lunar month is regarded as the Chinese New Year. Chinese New Year, known in modern China as the "Spring Festival", is an important festival celebrated at the turn of the traditional lunisolar calendar. In China, it is traditional during Spring Festival for schools and businesses to close allowing families to reunite. To learn more about local Spring Festival/Chinese New Year celebrations, visit the Asian Pacific Cultural Association (APCA) Lunar Fest.
