The beginning of the year is typically when faculty and staff begin to gather information regarding their retirement options. Human Resources has outlined a list of available resources and tools.

UC Retirement Administration Service Center

The UC Retirement Administration Service Center (RASC) is the University of California’s retirement processing office. Dedicated RASC representatives are available to respond to retirement questions, process retirement estimates, and assist with retirement profiles and election options.

For assistance, please contact RASC at (800) 888-8267: M – F, 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (PT).

UC Retirement Resources

UC retirement resources will assist in career-long financial planning for retirement and are located on the UCR Human Resources (HR), UCNet and Fidelity Investments websites. A Pre-Retirement Information and Resources Checklist is also available on the HR Retirement Benefits website to assist in identifying all the necessary documents to complete the retirement process.

The following retirement resources are available on the UCNet website:

1. Preparing for Retirement Video presentation: This presentation provides an overview of your UC retirement benefits, examples of retirement benefit calculations, and information about what you need to do to retire from UC. The presentation is 60 minutes in length and consists of 8 modules which may be viewed individually.
2. UCRP website
3. A Complete Guide to UC Retirement Benefits
4. Retiree Benefits Factsheet

Fidelity Investments

Fidelity Investments offers individual financial planning throughout the year. You may schedule a face-to-face meeting by contacting Diana Law, Fidelity Investments Retirement Planner by telephone at 1-800-558-9182 or online at Fidelity Investments Individual Counseling. For more information on the UC Retirement Savings Program offered through Fidelity Investments, visit myucreirement.com or contact Fidelity Investment’s customer service at (866) 682-7787.
UCR Central Human Resources

Human Resources recommends that faculty and staff contact RASC with their initial retirement questions. However, if there are additional questions, HR will have a dedicated staff member available to provide assistance.

Appointments will be available through March 29, 2018 and will take place at the Human Resources Central Office located at University Village, Suite 208. To schedule a confidential pre-retirement 30-minute appointment email the Benefits Office at benefits@ucr.edu for assistance.
