Academic Senate
Shared Governance In the context of UC

- Codified by UC Regents in 1920 Standing Order 105.2, Duties, Powers, & Privileges of the Academic Senate
- Identifies that UC faculty have oversight of the academic programs...
- Faculty authorizes, approves & supervises all courses
- Faculty determines requirements for admissions, certificates and degrees
- Faculty quality assessment

The Academic Senate carries out these mandated responsibilities and thereby allows the total faculty to share (with the administration) in the governance of the university.

WHO BELONGS TO THE SENATE

- Ladder-rank Faculty (including Emeriti)
- Deans and Provosts
- Chancellors
- President of the University of California
- All of the above have full voting rights in the Academic Senate
