Policy on Reporting and Investigating Allegations of Suspected Improper Governmental Activities

and

Policy for Protection of Whistleblowers From Retaliation and Guidelines for Reviewing Retaliation Complaints (Whistleblower Protection Policy)

represent the University’s implementing policies for the California Whistleblower Protection Act

Effective October 2002

POLICY OBJECTIVE

To assure an appropriate institutional response to any known or suspected impropriety and to create an environment that encourages candor while protecting the rights of all parties (i.e. whistleblowers, investigation participants, subjects and investigators).
Improper Governmental Activity

Any activity by a state agency or by an employee that is undertaken in the performance of the employee’s official duties, whether or not that action is within the scope of his or her employment, and that (1) is in violation of any state or federal law or regulation, including, but not limited to, corruption, malfeasance, bribery, theft of government property, fraudulent claims, fraud, coercion, conversion, malicious prosecution, misuse of government property, or willful omission to perform duty, or (2) is economically wasteful, or involves gross misconduct, incompetency, or inefficiency.

Serious or substantial violations of University policy may constitute improper governmental activities.

Must directly involve the University either as victim or perpetrator.
Any good faith communication that discloses or demonstrates an intention to disclose information that may evidence:

1) an improper governmental activity; or

2) any condition that may significantly threaten the health or safety of employees or the public if the disclosure or intention to disclose was made for the purpose of remedying that condition.
Whistleblower

- Person/entity making a protected disclosure (reporting party)
- UC employees (academic personnel or staff), students, applicants for employment, vendors, contractors or general public
- NOT investigators or fact-finders (do not determine appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted)
Reportable Conditions

1. Possible violation of any state or federal law or regulation
2. Significant internal control or policy deficiency that puts campus at risk of potential losses
3. Likely to receive media or other public attention
4. Misuse of campus resources or creates an exposure to a significant liability
5. Significant possibility of being the result of a criminal act
6. Significant threat to the health or safety of employees, students or the public
7. Situation that is economically wasteful, or involves gross misconduct, incompetence, or inefficiency
8. Likely to involve multiple investigative units
9. Significant or sensitive for other reasons
