The star of the #NOMASBUTTS campaign is a 200 pound sculpture in the shape of a fallen tree stump made from driftwood, faux wood and more than 50,000 cigarette butts created by Los Angeles-based, artist and director Cristobal Valecillos.

Learn about the dangerous health effects of smoking and the negative impact the tobacco industry has on our environment.