

Every successful journey requires proper planning and preparation. And because this is especially true for retirement, the University of California is offering a special educational event to help UC Riverside faculty and staff plan for financial security and enjoy all that retirement brings. Whether it's months or years away, your pathway to retirement starts here!

We invite you to attend the Pathway to Retirement event featuring the following planning essentials:

- Finding fulfillment in retirement
- Income planning for the long term
- UC Pension and Retirement Savings Program benefits
- Social Security benefits and claiming strategies
- Health coverage for retirees
- Navigating the UC retirement process
- Important resources and next steps
