I. Introduction
To support the health and well-being of the University of California (UC) community, University of California Office of the President (UCOP), in consultation with UC Health leadership, has issued an executive order to be in place to reduce the likelihood of severe disease. Effective November 1, 2020, all students, academics, and staff employees must receive a flu vaccine, unless an accommodation or an exemption permits otherwise.

The following information is intended to provide guidance and expectations as it relates to the official mandate and reducing severity of illness as an effort of maintaining a healthy campus for all.

II. Scope
All academic and staff (non-represented and represented) employees, and staff living, learning, or working at any UC Riverside (UCR) location must receive a flu vaccine by October 31, 2020.

UCR students are not within the scope of this standard operating procedure. For information on students refer to the Student Health Services Immunization Requirements at: https://studenthealth.ucr.edu/immunization-requirements.

III. Definitions
A. On-Campus (for the purpose of this standard operating procedure) is any space/facility that is owned or operated/leased by UCR (e.g., UCR Health practices, Palm Desert campus) or the UC.

B. Reasonable accommodation (for the purpose of this standard operating procedure) is a change to a job, department’s policy, or to the work environment that enables the employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job.

C. Religion (for the purpose of this standard operating procedure) is a moral or ethical belief(s) as to what is “right and wrong” that are sincerely held with the strength of traditional religious views. This includes all traditionally recognized religions and beliefs, as well as other observations or practices which are sincerely held by an employee and occupy a place of importance parallel to that of traditionally recognized religions.

IV. University of California Executive Order
Effective November 1, 2020, no academic or staff employee (collectively an “Employee”) employed by the university or working on-site at any location owned, operated, or otherwise controlled by the UC may report to that site for work unless they have received their 2020-2021 Influenza (flu) vaccine or have an approved medical exemption, medical/disability or religious accommodation on file. To read the full version of the Executive Order, visit: https://ucnet.universityofcalifornia.edu/news/2020/08/img/2020-21-flu-vaccination-executive-order.pdf.
V. Completing the Employee Flu Vaccination Form

All Employees (including those who are working remotely) will receive an email informing them of their requirement to complete the Employee Flu Vaccination Requirement Form. Employees will receive an email with a personalized link to complete the requirement form. The electronic form must be completed and submitted by using the link provided in the email.

The Qualtrics System: UCR Employee Flu Vaccination Requirement Form may be used on a computer, tablet or smartphone.

XI. Frequently Asked Questions

Q1. Is the flu vaccination requirement a permanent change to UC policy?
A1. No. The new requirement is based on the UC’s assessment of the current situation and will be revisited as the situation demands.

Q2. To whom does the order apply?
A2. The executive order applies to UC students, faculty, and staff.

Q3. What is the deadline to get a flu vaccination?

Q4. Will I need to get a flu vaccination if I had one earlier in the year?
A4. Yes. To be consistent with CDC influenza (flu) season guidelines, individuals must receive the 2020-2021 flu immunization.

Q5. If an Employee works remotely but needs to access a UCR facility/location for a brief period of time, will they be required to get a flu vaccine?
A5. Yes. Effective November 1, 2020, no person employed by the UC or working on-site at any location owned, operated, or otherwise controlled by the UC may report to that site for work unless they have received the 2020-2021 flu vaccine, or an approved medical exemption and accommodation, or a religious accommodation.

Q6. How do UCR Employees attest that they received a flu vaccine?
A6. Staff and faculty will be able to attest via the Employee Flu Vaccination Requirement Form.
Q7. Where are the flu vaccine exemption and accommodation forms located?

A7. The UC Medical Exemption Request Form and UCR accommodation forms can be found on the HR Forms and Documents webpage.

Q8. Will hourly workers be granted time off to obtain the vaccine?

A8. Policy covered hourly Employees may take up to two hours of paid time. Employees must provide advance notice to their supervisor.

Q9. Will exempt workers be granted time off to obtain the vaccine?

A9. Exempt employees may take up to two hours of paid time. Employees must provide advance notice to their supervisor.

Q10. How do I respond to an Employee who asks for a religious accommodation?

A10. When dealing with a religious accommodation, it is important to remain respectful at all times. Supervisors/managers should only ask questions necessary to making sure the religious accommodation can be fully addressed.

   With that in mind, please follow these guidelines:
   - Work with your department HRBP/Leave Coordinator to explore opportunities for an accommodation with the Employee in consultation with the Employee and Labor Relations office.
   - If possible, a reasonable accommodation will be made that does not create an undue hardship.

   Note: An Employee does not have to use the specific words “I am requesting an accommodation” to start engaging in the interactive process.

Q11. What is an “undue hardship”?

A11. An accommodation may cause undue hardship if it is costly, compromises workplace safety, decreases workplace efficiency, infringes on the rights of other Employees, or requires other Employees to do more than their share of potentially hazardous or burdensome work. Undue hardship also may be shown if the request for an accommodation violates the terms of a collective bargaining agreement.

Q12. What qualifies as a reasonable accommodation?

A12. Reasonable accommodations can include (but are not limited to):
   - modified face masks
   - medical or religious exemption for Flu vaccinations
   - leaves of absences
   - altering when, how or where the essential job function is performed (e.g., teleworking, increasing distance or erecting a barrier)
   - job restructuring – reallocating or redistributing marginal job functions.
