Accessibility is a University Responsibility

Accessibility is the inclusive practice of removing barriers that prevent people with disabilities from doing what they need to do online.
Did you know we have more than 50 eCourses available around accessibility in the UC Learning Center? Provided by UCOP in partnership with Siteimprove, these courses cover a range of topics from basic principles to creating accessible documents, to web development, as well as accessibility considerations for classrooms, marketing and purchasing.

General Principles & Practices

Staff Appreciation and Recognition Plan returns on April 1, 2021
The Staff Appreciation and Recognition (STAR) plan is an employee recognition program which allows supervisors and managers to recognize, acknowledge and reward employees for exceptional performance and/or significant contributions related to and supportive of individual, departmental, divisional and or organizational goals and objectives. SPOT awards may be used to recognize significant one-time accomplishments and STAR awards may be used to recognize longer term accomplishments and sustained excellence which support UC Riverside’s strategic goals. For more information, please visit the UCR Employee Recognition webpage.

STAR/SPOT Award Resources

Gartner – Summary: In today's disruptive climate defined by low budgets, anxiety and economic insecurity, rewards and recognition programs are key levers HR leaders can use to motivate performance and retain top performers.
